An Unexpected Christmas: Unfamiliar

Luke 2:1-20 (Luke 2:10-11)

Mary's young life quickly turned to the unexpected. The announcement of Gabriel was certainly an interruption to her plans. With her plans now thrown out the window, Mary began to walk an unscripted path that was based on trust and worship of God. As with other parts of Mary's story we find the birth of her son, God's Son, in an unfamiliar setting: an overcrowded town far away from home, surrounded by strangers, no place but a manger for a crib, and simple shepherds as the first visitors. Overwhelmed with all that had happened Mary treasured and pondered these things in her heart.
