

Sermon Notes: WEIRD View of Money

1 Timothy 6:6-10 (Prov. 21:20)

Normal people constantly seem to be striving for bigger and better; more money to buy the bigger house, have the fancy toys, and go on the exotic vacation. In the pursuit of more, often time's families are shattered, lives are ruined, and hearts are left broken. Weird people do not seek more of this world; weird people seek to find happiness in contentment.

If you want what normal people _____, _____ what normal people _____; however, if you want what _____ people have, _____ what _____ do.
