

Sermon Notes

WEIRD is Better:

Conforming Our Actions to God's

1 Peter 1:13-16 (John 15:18-19)

(Page 850 in the Pew Bible)

When we make God both Lord and Master of our lives, He saves us from the pits of living a normal life. In His salvation He gives us permission to live a WEIRD life. Last week we learned that the weird life is a life that transforms our minds to God's. Today we will see that the weird life is a life that transforms our actions to God's making us holy as God is holy.

If you want _____ people have, do what _____ people do, however, if you want what _____ people have do what _____ do.

- WEIRD is _____ because God is _____ ~ 1 Peter 1:13-16
 - Greek for holy = hagiōs
 - hagiōs means: to be _____, _____, and _____
 - To be holy is to be _____ ... even _____

There are often two barricades on the road to being weird

- Barricade #1 ... The _____ pull: the need to _____ ~ Proverbs 29:25
- Barricade #2 ... The _____ pressures: _____ ~ John 15:18-20

I cannot please _____, but I can please _____ ~
1 Thessalonians 2:4

