Some Food For Thought

For years the common model in most churches was that of the Senior Minister delivering the majority of the sermons throughout the year. Occasionally the minister would go on vacation, possibly attend camp, a conference, revival meeting, and then have the occasional missionary come and speak. In this ministry model the majority of preachers preached somewhere between 45 and 50 sermons a year. I am thankful that is not the model we have today here at West Side.

This year, I will only preach around 38 times, while Marty preaches 12 times, and we have a few additional guest speakers. It's not because I do not love to preach and it's not because of my desire to be lazy. The reason I love this model is because I think it is a healthier diet for you the congregation. Marty and I bring completely different preaching styles to the table. What Marty might say on a particular topic is typically not what I would say. And that is ok. In fact that is a very good thing. Having a wide ranging preaching diet is good, just like having a diet that does not consist of only meat and potatoes is good for our physical health.

Here in July, our preaching diet is going to change. On Sunday July 17th I am going to be at Butler Springs preparing for nearly 70 4th, 5th, and 6th graders that God has granted us the privilege of leading for a week and Marty will be on vacation. That Sunday, Steve Henderson will be here speaking, representing Christian Village Communities (Formerly Christian Benevolent Association, which operates Mason Christian Village). The following Sunday, July 23rd, I will be worshipping with Jamaican Christians in Jamaica and Steve Elkins, Associate Minister of the Spring Hill Church of Christ in Middletown, will bring our morning messages. Finally, on Sunday morning July 31st Marty will bring our morning message.

I encourage you to be here each Sunday morning to hear the wisdom they have to share and the message God has given them to preach. You never know what benefit your spiritual diet may gain that day.

~ In Christ's Service, Michael

Mike and Debbie Flinchum served in Thailand from 1986-1996 and returned to Chiangmai, Thailand in 2006. (Marty and Rosemary Egelston, along with their daughters, Tracy Conley and Dawn Rhoden also worked there in the 1980's.)

Mike and Debbie served on the teaching staff of Lanna Theological Center. LTC has a goal to train nationals to evangelize their own people groups. Bible college classes are taught to students in a classroom setting and then they are taken to local villages for the practical aspects of their studies.

With the help of their students, the Flinchum's work in discipling the hill tribe orphan children and evangelizing among the Thai's and the unreached hill tribes people. They hold weekly worship services for the students as well as the surrounding communities.
