Joy Belles

Loving & Leading Women to a Life Changing Relationship with Jesus Christ.

Women's Ministry

The next Joy Belles meeting is Tuesday, October 8th starting at 6:30 P.M. September's program is Craft Night let by Crystal Dawson. Hostesses are Susie Perkins and Jami Litchfield. Devotions will be by Cheryl Fox.

If you are interested in helping with the Chili Cook-Off and Quarter Auction, please see a Joy Belles Board member. There are many aspects that need to happen to bring this event together. If you or your family would like to put a basket together, please let Allie Cramer, Lydia Moeller, Charlotte Peek, Jan Hollingsworth or Kay Weisbrodt know ASAP. As a reminder, the baskets need to be turned in to the church by October 20th (this excludes baked goods).

Family Movie Night

In Search of Liberty is the next movie being shown on Friday, October 25th at 7 P.M. in the Fellowship Hall. A captivating statesman from America's past takes a modern-day family on a series of wild adventures. With a spicy mix of humor, magic and logic, he opens their eyes to the origins and importance of the U.S. Constitution, the degree to which it is under attack today and what can and must be done to save it. A fun movie for first grade and up!

Family Meals

I'm so excited for the season of autumn! It brings us cooler weather, fun root vegetables, soups and stews! As a mom, I would always push soup on my family. Soups and stews are easy to throw together and can be stretched. Besides chili (which I will not give away our recipe because of the cook-off coming up), this recipe is one of our family favorites. I pair it with bread and butter and maybe an apple crisp for dessert. – Cheryl Fox

Illinois Corn Sausage Chowder

From Arretta Rainey

1 pound bulk ground pork sausage
1 medium onion, diced
½ tsp. dried marjoram, crushed
2 cups water
1 (17 oz) whole kernel corn (drained)

1 (12 oz) can evaporated milk
4 cups cubed, peeled potatoes
1/8 tsp. ground pepper
1 (17 oz) can cream style corn
Salt to taste

In a Dutch oven or large pot, cook sausage and onions until sausage is brown and onion is tender, drain on paper towels. Return sausage and onion to pan with potatoes, marjoram, pepper and water. Bring to a boil; reduce heat and simmer just until potatoes are tender (about 15 minutes). Add both corns and evaporated milk. Heat through. Makes 6 servings.

One of our mission partners is Restoration House Ministries. Their objective is to plant churches in New England, one of the most under church regions in the United States. Since 1999 Restoration House Ministries has been privileged to assist in the birth of sixteen new churches. They continue to be amazed at the doors God is opening for church planting in New England and are grateful to be used by Him in ways only He could foresee. Please pray for there newest church plant, Renaissance Christian Church in Waltham, MA.

The Hunger 5K is a fun, family-friendly way for people of all ages to help those in need. Proceeds benefit Matthew 25: Ministries' work with the poorest of the poor and disaster victims in Greater Cincinnati, throughout the U.S., and around the world. The race also kicks off the Hunger 5K Food Drive, which raises food products for local pantries and shelters. Since the race began, over 950,000 pounds of food has been distributed to people in need in Greater Cincinnati.

Some Food for Thought

Last Sunday (Sunday September 22, 2019, Founder's Day) I had the honor, along with our Elders, to announce to our congregation the retirement of Lew Rainey, at the end of this year, as one of our Elders. Lew has faithfully served West Side Christians as an Elder since around 1980. Lew's forty years of faithfulness and leadership has been incredibly impressive.

I have had the privilege of serving alongside Lew for the last ten years. However, our relationship began before my ministry here started. While I was interviewing, it was Lew and Arretta who took Crystal and I out to lunch following the morning service. I remember sitting around the table at Bob Evan's hearing the stories of Lew and Arretta's marriage and ministry. I remember the story of Arretta telling Lew they could not get married until the building was complete, so Lew got involved. I remember listening to them tell about the foreign exchange students they hosted, and later visited. I remember Lew telling me about the girl from Europe (perhaps Germany), who didn't like how sour their sauerkraut was, and recommend putting an apple in it while cooking it. That is a tip I still use today! I also remember after that trip hearing that Lew had cancer, and being shook by that, and feeling a strong need to send him and Arretta a card letting them know we were thinking of them.

Those memories are just the start of the relationship Lew and I have. One of my fondest memories happened a few years after I came to West Side. I had a phrase I liked to use at the time. However, the phrase wasn't being heard or understood the way I meant for it to be, and was not sitting well with some. So Lew, hearing what people were saying, came and talked to me about it. That is a conversation I am thankful for. I am thankful for his leadership in that moment. I am thankful that he made it clear to me that people were not hearing me right. That is what a good Elder does. And Lew is a good Elder.

At the start of next year, it will be the first time in forty some years that Lew Rainey is not a West Side Elder. As we shared last Sunday, that doesn't mean Lew is going to fade away. At this time, Lew wants to continue his hospital ministry, knowing that our four other elders work full time jobs. As well as hospital visits, Lew also plans to continue his Tuesday afternoon Bible study class. We also announced that as a leadership and as a church, we are sending Lew and Arretta (along with Mike and Cheryl) to the Winter Worship and Workshop put on by Barnabas Ministries this coming February. This retreat, in Pigeon Forge, TN, will be a week of rest and a time to recharge the spiritual batteries.

Over the course of the next few months, will you take a moment to write Lew a note, or speak to him in person, and let Him know how much you appreciate the Shepherd Elder he has faithfully been. - In Christ's Service, Michael

Different

October 6	1 Peter 5
October 13	2 Peter 1
October 20	2 Peter 2
October 27	2 Peter 3

In this world, you'll have struggles. You'll face opposition. You'll be challenged. And there's a reason for that: this world is not your home. So, answer hate with love, find joy in the midst of trials, and rely on a strength beyond yourself. You're meant to be ... Different.

This series is a study of the books of 1st and 2nd Peter and covers topics like how to respond to persecution and culture in a world that's increasingly pulling away from God.
